SLIGHT HOPE FOR RESCUE

British, French And Italian Garrisons Take Measures To Aid Descent

By Associated Press
Paris — There appeared Monday morning to be some hope of saving French dirigible Dixmude, which with 50 officers and men aboard, has been drifting helplessly for three days over the Gulf of Gabes on the north coast of Africa and over the interior of Tunis.

Although news received in Paris has been sparse, the latest notices said that the great airship had drifted well inland and taking a northwesterly direction, was hovering in the vicinity of Fom Tathouine, 30 miles south of Medinin.

Military authorities at Fom Tathouine were reported to have prepared a fair landing place, in case the ship was able to descend. Automobile headlights were set to mark out the spot through the night. A strong force of troops was also present.

MAINTAIN CLOSE WATCH

The Italian authorities in Tripoli have instructed all military posts to maintain a close watch for the Dix-mude and to take all necessary steps to aid her should help be necessary.

British officials at Malta have warned naval units in the Mediterranean to keep an extra lookout by day and searchlights playing by night. Successfully accomplishing a 2 day flight from Cuers-Pierrefeu to Insalah, southern Algeria, the Dixmude last Friday afternoon headed eastward for Tunis. Her gasoline supply was so low that it was necessary to put her on only one of her six motors. Then she began to drift, sending out distress signals that put in motion all French naval units within call and all garrisons in the Tunis district.

Last September the Dixmude established a world's record duration flight of 4,500 miles. She was endeavoring to break this record when trouble overtook her.

Sleuths Swoop On Towns When Alleged Bootleggers Are Unprepared

By Associated Press
Marion, Ill. — Four men were shot, one seriously, in a roundup of alleged moonshiners and bootleggers in Williams-on, on Saturday night and Sunday, and Monday 12 persons were held in the Franklin Co. jail at Benton, and 62 were at liberty under bonds ranging from $2,000 to $5,000.
All were charged with violating the federal prohibition law.

Ammeto Terhehne of Freeman is in the hospital at West Frankfort, shot in the head, stomach and back.
Three others were treated for superficial bullet wounds at West Frankfort.

Otis Clark, the first man indicted in connection with the Herrin mine killing, was among those arrested.

The raiders swooped down on all nearby towns almost simultaneously and early Sunday there was great excitement in Benton. It is being estimated that more than 3,000 persons were gathered in the town square.

The raids came at a time when the alleged bootleggers were preparing for a big Christmas business in the belief that the majority of dry agents had been called into Chicago for holiday duty.

FOUR FATALLY INJURED
WHEN TAXICAB HITS CAR

Chicago — Four men were probably fatally injured here early Monday when a touring car and a taxi-cab crashed head-on while going at a rapid rate of speed. The taxi driver and his passengers were taken to the hospital and are not expected to live.
Two of the three men in the touring car are likewise probably fatally hurt. Another occupant of the touring car escaped with only a few bruises.

Weather Man

Washington, D. C. — No "white Christmas" in prospect, but there will be a bite in the air. Christmas morning in marked contrast to the conditions of the last few days, when summerlike weather has prevailed over a wide area.

Light frost is predicted by the weather bureau for Monday night as far south as extreme northern Florida.

Indications are for generally fair weather Monday night and Tuesday in the middle Atlantic, south Atlantic, east gulf states, Tennessee, the Ohio valley and the lower lake region. The only snow fall probably is predicted for portions of northern New England northern New York and this may turn to local rains.

Monday night the temperature will be slightly lower in the middle Atlantic states but they will rise slowly in the Atlantic states north of Virginia during Christmas Day.

CHURCH FACES
NEW OUTBREAK
AFTER HOLIDAY

Virgin Birth Controversy Expected To Continue After Christmas Truce

By Associated Press
New York — Indications were Monday that after the "Christmas truce"
in the Protestant Episcopal church,
the controversy between modernists and conservatives would rage with renewed vigor.

Bishop William T. Manning's request for the "truce" was generally observed Sunday, but reference to the controversy was made in copies circulated Sunday of the sermon delivered by the Reverend Dr. Leighton Parks at Saint Bartholomews a week ago Sunday and by the Reverend Dr.
William Norman Guthrie, pastor of St. Marks-in-the-Bowery in discussing the bible.

It has been the Sunday custom at St. Bartholomews to distribute pamphlets of the preceding week's sermon. The pamphlets distributed Sunday were an edited version of the lecture in which Dr. Parks invited, a trial for heresy.

The doctrine of the virgin birth, the pamphlet said, was clamped upon the church during the middle ages on the basis of the doctrine of original sin. It was the contention among those who did the "clamping," it added, that virginity was a higher state than marriage and hence the story that Christ's mother was virgin.

The appeal for the "Christmas truce" was used by the Reverend Charles Francis Potter, pastor of the West Side Unitarian church, as the basis of a renewed attack upon conservatism.

Multitudes are crying for the "truth" and to deny them now would be "treacherous," he said. "No wonder the blind priests of the old order want the new prophets to keep quiet.
But they might as well try to dam
the Mississippi river with waste paper."

WHITE HOUSE OPENS
DOORS FOR HOLIDAY

Washington, D. C. — All gates of the White House ground will be thrown open Monday night while Christmas carols are sung at the northern entrance of the executive mansion.

Mrs. Coolidge, wife of the president, was the moving spirit in having the old custom revived, and at her invitation the public will take part in the celebration. The vested choir of the First Congregational church, where the president and Mrs. Coolidge worship, will lead the singing. Musicians from the Marine band will assist.

Suspect Bankers Responsible
For Theft Of 2,500
Names In Capital

Washington, D. C. — With the mystery of the whereabouts of the list of 2,500 names reported seized during the roundup of alleged members of a local bootlegging syndicate growing deeper, investigators are said to be working on information which they describe as pointing to the involvement of one or more bankers in the financing of the enterprise.
The list of alleged purchasers, however, remained the chief points of interest in the investigation as far as residents of the capital were concerned, many of whom felt more competent to enjoy the holidays after reading Monday morning's newspapers. The Anti-Saloon league and the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, among other agencies, were demanding publication of the names, and assistant District Attorney Presmont had announced he would submit them to the grand jury for possible indictment on conspiracy charges, but police insisted they had turned over all evidence seized in the raid to internal revenue bureau investigators for the latter insisted they were not in possession of the list.

LEADERSHIP GOES

Republicans Suggest Coalition
In Event Venizelos Refuses Offer

Athens — In the event that former Premier Venizelos returns a negative reply to the request of the council of ministers that he return to Greece, the Republicans suggest that a coalition government be formed, to be composed of the four leading parties — The Republicans, the Liberals, the Republican-Liberals and the Refugee group, headed by Dr. Dioxades, minister of public relief.

George Roussos, former Greek minister at Washington and now chief of the Republican-Liberals is one of the several political leaders favoring the coalition. However, many of the leading Liberals oppose such a step, preferring to allow the Republicans to have their flight at the difficult task of governing Greece.
The feeling at present is that the Republicans are sure to be quickly discredited and that the people will be obliged to call the Liberals to power.

MOTHER PLEADS FOR SLAYER OF HER SON

Paris — Arguments were made today in the trial of Germaine Berthoin, girl anarchist, charged with killing Marius Plateau, reporter for the Royalist newspaper, L'Action Francaise, last January.

The conclusion of the public prosecutor's speech stirred the audience deeply. After saying he saw no place for extenuating circumstances
he added:
"The mother of the dead asks you,
gentlemen of the jury, through me,
to grant such circumstances to the murderess of her son. So grant them, but give a firm clear and just verdict."

ULSTER OFFICERS
TAKE 8 IN RAIDS

Belfast, Ireland — Members of the Ulster constabulary and special officers Sunday raided a meeting in Londonderry and arrested eight persons present, including a Nationalist election agent. Four of the prisoners had returned north recently from internment in the Free state. The homes of the captives were subsequently searched. The raid is said to have been a sequel to a recent arrest and the capture of documents, and it is intimated that startling developments are expected. Those attending the meeting declared its object was to raise funds for the defense of the men charged with the murder of Howard McKay during the 1920 riots.

OFFERS BLOOD TO AID MAN WHO SENT HIM TO PRISON

Paris — A man named L. Rappell who said Thomas Lee Woolwine, former district attorney of Los Angeles, Calif., had sent him to prison, called at the hotel here where Mr.
Woolwine is ill, and offered to give a pint of blood to the man who once prosecuted him. Rappell's offer, however, was not accepted, as the doctors had already decided to take the blood from the little hotel maid who attends the Woolwine family.
She was one of several volunteers.

Washington — Congress may pass a law requiring all American officials, diplomats, consuls and agents to travel on American ships hereafter.
This is the likely sequel to the incident which has just aroused the senate in connection with the discovery that the American Bar association did not buy passage for its members on an American ship but gave the business to a foreign steamship line.

Congress has no control, of course,
over private bodies like the American Bar association, but the hope is that when the government compels people on its own pay roll to travel on American ships the example may be borne in on other American citizens as a patriotic duty.

The shipping board has again and again been confronted, abroad with the humiliating argument of prospective passengers, that if American officials do not consider their own ships worth while patronizing why should any one else do so.

BOOZE ROBBERS PUT DOG

By Associated Press
Philadelphia — After choirforming a watchdog late Saturday night, bandits robbed the home of Crowsdale Knott at Lansie, a suburb, of liquor said to be worth $11,000. It became known Monday. The bandits in the fight dropped $4,500 in bonds taken from a desk.
Rare wines and cordials were included in its liquor stock, police said.

Death Brings Relief
As Christmas Present

Garden, N. J. — The Christmas session brought to 13-year-old Helen Hamilton, the gift she most desired, the one for which she had prayed — death.
Racked for months by almost involuntary pain due to a ruptured heart — the result of a childish prank eight years ago — the heroic little girl died Sunday with her mother's arms about her and secure in the belief that she would find a painless, perfect happiness in the world beyond. Clapsed rights to her breast was her favorite doll which she asked be buried with her. Her last words were a prayer for death.
"Jesus, take me; take me Jesus,"
she said.
Her pale lips had prayed that she might live until her birthday, Nov.
26. She had hoped to die that day.
When it passed she appeared to rally but soon afterward passed into a lethargy from which she rarely was aroused. The climax of her suffering came Saturday morning and 12 hours later she told her mother, Mrs.
Emma Hamilton, a widow, that she knew the end was near. "Take me in your lap mother," she said. "I know this is the end. I know that in a few minutes I will die. I want to feel your arms around me. I want to be held close before I go."
"Then," said Mrs. Hamilton, "her thin arms came around my neck.
Three times she kissed me. Never have I known anything so sweet as those kisses. I can never forget them."
"A few minutes later I saw her lips move and leaned over to hear
"dear dear, Jesus," she was saying, "I am suffering so much, please, please, take me. Then her hands stiffened.
There came a swift short convulsion and she was gone."

Two Of Black Trio Captured
After Shooting Marshal
To Death

Jackson, Miss. — Two Negroes arrested, another is being trailed by officers, three tramps are in custody and Bolton, Miss. is without a marshal because of a shooting affair on a freight train on Saturday night in which Marshal Oile Lancaster was killed.

Will Hamilton, white, accompanying the marshal, was wounded in the exchange of shots with three alleged holdup Negroes. The holdup of a Negro at Edwards by the black trio which jumped from the train but bearded it again after the robbery, was reported. Lancaster went to the train in Bolton a short time later to search for the three. The officer was recognized in the dark and shot to death.

Leslie Heard, Negro with a shot wound in his leg, was picked up near Bolton by a planter, Heard, according to the officers, told of the shooting and blamed a third Negro, Henry Lee, another Negro of the trio, was captured after bloodhounds had been put on the trail. Heard and Lee are in the county jail here. Sheriff Williams is still searching for the Negro alleged to have done the killing.

Four white tramps who were on a train at the time of the Bolton tragedy were taken into custody. Three are held in the county jail at Raymond, and one, whose leg was broken and whom his companions say they were taking care of at the time of the shooting, was taken to a hospital in Vicksburg.

General Abundio Gomez, governor of

of the plane were killed.

KLAN MAY ACT IN
SAYRE ADOPTION

Serious Threats Said To Have Been Made Against Boy's Protector

Convent, N. J. — Threats of serious consequences if he should again visit Grace Episcopal church with his prospective foster son are declared to have been made by Monnell Sayre, wealthy patron of Francis Kluxen, a Madison schoolboy who was taken in hand by Mr. Sayre last year after the acquittal of the murder of Janet Lawrence, a school girl.

Mr. Sayre, who has taken steps to legally adopt Kluxen took the boy to church a week ago Sunday.

Many threats have been made against Kluxen's life, he said, and the boy is being kept indoors at the Sayre mansion. Some persons he says, have told him that Kluxen, who is 16 years old, is believed guilty of the Lawrence murder and have hinted that the Ku Klux Klan may take a hand.

"On account of four attempts to assassinate the boy within two weeks after his acquittal," Sayre said, "I deemed it my Christian duty to take him to live with me, but I don't care to risk my son's life for the privilege of attending any church."

Mr. Sayre is a banker and a vestry-man of Grace church.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

For most of us this has been a prosperous and satisfactory year, and even to the small minority which has missed fortune's smile it has not been a distressful year. All in all, everybody has much for which to be thankful, and few have any real excuse for being unhappy.

Christmas is the season which brings to us the sentiments that cause us to rejoice in the reality of living. Most of our regrets, disappointments, adversities, discouragements and hopelessness are state of mind. Most of our troubles are hallucinations or delusions. Most of our worries and regrets are due to selfishness.

Christmas is the festival season of unselfishness. Those who are happy or would be happy forget about themselves and their own small interests and seek and find their peace in the broad spirit of charity. They feel that love and selfishness are not the same, and that happiness is achieved by giving it to others.

The true spirit of Christmas is not to wish to receive presents and to be flattered, but the will to do something for others in order to make them happy. It is the spirit of giving, not receiving. It is not for those who are wondering what their relatives and friends will give them for Christmas. They are apt to be disappointed, and should be. Their relatives and friends will not disappoint them; they will disappoint themselves. They want much, will receive but little, but what they receive will be more than they deserve.

The Christmas sentiment is the sentiment of living for others. It makes no difference what we receive. It makes no difference if we receive nothing. The only important thing is whether we are living and doing to make others happy.

PETROLEUM SUPPLY AND DEMAND

The Standard Oil company treats in its current bulletin, of the low prices which have prevailed for sometime in the petroleum industry, and attributes them to the action of the law of supply and demand. The immediate, direct cause of the break in prices was over-production in California. Oil was shipped from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic, lowering prices. In the oil industry, the bulletin says, this has been a buyer's year.

Too few persons pay sufficient attention to the operation of the law of supply and demand. Actually, there is no such condition as over-production, although there is over-production for brief intervals. What is called over-production is, in fact, mistaken judgment. Were the law of supply and demand carefully watched, there would be no excess output, as output would be adjusted to demand.

Prices rise when demand is strong and fall when supply is large. There is competition in buying when supply is small, or approximately equal to demand, and there is competition in selling when supply is large.

Officers of the Standard Oil company are not the only experts in the petroleum industry who ascribe low prices to excess of supply in relation to demand. Independents are of the same opinion. The law is easy to understand, but many business men forget about it when trade is brisk and prices are high.

THE CASE AGAINST RUSSIA

Notwithstanding the attempt of Foreign Minister Tchitcherine to dispute the authenticity of the documents published by the state department, we think the government of the United States has the "goods" on the Russian soviet government. The information given out by Secretary Hughes, acquired by our state department, is to the effect that the communist international, which has a close organic connection with the soviet republic, is actively engaged in spreading propaganda in the United States for the avowed purpose of over-throwing this government and raising "the red flag over the White House." It is functioning in this country through the organization known as the Workers' Party of America.

Mr. Tchitcherine says the documents quoted by the state department were forged. The state department is not in the habit of accepting documentary evidence of this or any other nature unless its genuineness is fully established. There is not one chance in a thousand that it has been imposed upon in this instance. Mr. Hughes is an exceedingly cautious man and of course realized the importance of dealing only with certainties. There may be a few in this country who, because of their radical leanings, would prefer to take the word of the Russian soviet to that of the government at Washington, but they are very few.

It should be kept in mind that the state department does not accuse the soviet authorities directly with spreading revolutionary propaganda in the United States. It assigns this offense to the communist international, but it has also proved to its own satisfaction, and we think to the satisfaction of the American people, that the relationship between the communist international and the soviet government is so close as to make them mutually responsible for the acts of either. The proposal of Mr. Tchitcherine to submit the authenticity of the Russian documents to arbitration is of course merely a bluff. He knows the United States would not consent to make a fool of itself. Our reputation as a nation for honesty and integrity can hardly be challenged by a government with the reputation of the Russian soviet, which has been abundantly convicted of trying to undermine other governments by its propaganda and overt acts, which is guilty of debt repudiation, indefensible confiscation of property and which has committed numberless crimes that shocked civilization.

Laying aside the question of debt repudiation and of inadequate guarantees of property, the information made public by the state department is sufficient to cancel all thought of recognition of the Russian soviet at this time. The state department knows a great deal more about Russia and its hostile activities toward the United States than the soviet or the partisans of the communistic political system who lately visited Russia and came back clamoring for recognition may suspect.

A demand for recognition would imply acquiescence in the Russian soviet's attempt to foment revolution in this country. In the absence of admission of error by the state department the facts it has presented may be taken as established officially and conclusively. It is also brought out that the Workers' Party of America is behind the federated farmer-labor party movement, a fact which offers additional food for contemplation by thorough-going Americans.

WELL LET'S TAKE THE AIR

Here's an interesting passage from a letter written July 28, by B. F.:
I greatly approve the epithet which you give, in your letter of the eighth of June, to the new method of treating the sunburn which you call "the tonic of bracing method." I will take the occasion from it to mention a practice to which I have become accustomed myself. You know the cold bath has long been in vogue here as a tonic; but the shock of the cold water has always appeared to me, generally speaking, as too violent; and I have found it much more agreeable to my constitution if it is only fair to mention that B. F. sees the need of it through the eyes of a man 54 years old who bathes in another element—I mean cold air. With this in mind, I rise almost every morning and sit in my chamber without any clothes whatever, half an hour or an hour, according to the season, either reading or writing. This practice is not in the least painful, but, on the contrary, agreeable and if I return to bed afterwards, before I dress myself, as sometimes happens, I make a supplement to my night's rest of one or two hours of the most pleasant sleep than can be imagined. I find no ill consequences whatever resulting from it, and that at least it does not injure my preservation. I shall therefore call it in the future a bracing or tonic bath.

This letter was not written to me, but to a man by the name of Dubourg; it wasn't written last July but in 1780. B. Franklin wrote it.
So I must confess that Benjamin Franklin is entitled to the priority in the discovery of the cold air bath, though I modestly maintain the cold air technique is a little better. It would be quite all right to sit around for an hour or two on a balmy morning in July or a September morn, but in November or January, if you keep the windows open, you just naturally ought to busy yourself with some sort of exercise while taking your morning cold bath. It's an ideal time and quite the correct custom for a rendition of the New Brady symphony, words and music available free to any reader who accompanies his request for it with a neatly stamped envelope bearing his name and address.

It is a very keen desire to me that I am unable to find any conclusive scientific basis for the nation that a daily bath of this kind is a salutary habit. For that matter, science is just one disappointment after another, though I do like to have a firm scientific backing for whatever utterances or suggestions I offer here in the name of health. The best I can do in this matter is to compare the bracing, stimulating of tonic virtues of the morning cold air bath with the morning cold water bath. As Ben Franklin said, the shock of cold water on a nice warm skin on a cold morning is rather violent for persons beyond the very pink of youth.

Not only the skin and the complexion suffer from excessive clothing but in all likelihood our custom of wearing more than comfort demands has a deleterious effect upon the general health, particularly the power of resistance to the respiratory diseases, which cause the greater part of our morbidity and mortality. This isn't science, just speculation. Think it over as you read.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dev Sores in Virginia
Can you tell me what "dev sores" are? The natives here in Virginia call them so. The sores are painful suppurating sores that often throb and ache and cause the glands in the groin to swell. They seem to come in August or early autumn mostly. They appear on the bare feet of boys or men who go barefoot. The natives declare they are caused by walking in the dew.—J. F.

Answer—Such sores, called "dev sores," "ground itch" and the like, often occur when the larvae of the hookworm invade the skin. That is the usual way of hookworm infection, the soil in rural communities in many parts of the south being polluted with the eggs of hookworms from the careless disposal of the excrement of human hosts of the parasite.

Weaning Age
At what age shall I wean my baby. She is strong and healthy and 8 months old.—Mrs. A. N. A.
Answer—A baby should be weaned at about the age of 10 months, as a rule. A week or 10 days is plenty of time to accomplish weaning. It is best accomplished by omitting one breast feeding and substituting the bottle the first day, and one more feeding each succeeding day. The best results are assured if, when the baby is entirely off the breast, a comfortable support or brassiere is applied (not tightly) and an absolute let alone policy pursued from then on.

Iodin Ration
Please print the formula for Dr. Quimby's Iodin ration which you gave several months ago. Two friends of mine who used it tell me it did them more good.—M. E. K.
Answer—(There are many forms of Iodin. I think it is immaterial which form is used for this purpose. For instance, if you wish to insure an adequate Iodin ration you may take one drop of the ordinary tincture of Iodin in a pint of drinking water, each day for two or three months in the year. This means the common brown tincture of Iodin (iodine) which is generally used as a first aid disinfectant of wounds.

(Christmas day, no paper issued.)

TEN YEARS AGO
Monday, December 22, 1913

Carl J. Waterman of the conservatory of music was attending grand opera at Chicago.

Thomas H. Hardy of Greenville called on Appleton friends.

Gerald Carroll, an engineering student at the state university, was home for the holidays.

Fred Ziegler of Milwaukee spent the weekend with Appleton relatives.

Mrs. George W. Berg of Dale was the guest of Appleton friends.

Twin boys were born the previous Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Lothar Graf.

James Donnelly, Paul Simson, Karl Klotsch and Ray Gehring of the state university are here to spend the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Frank Murphy of Roger Park, Ill., was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dean.

Lewis Cole of the Fourth ward was awarded the contract for painting the new pumping station.

Mrs. Thirza Hollister Clark, 75, died at the home of her nephew, Olin Meade, 638 Pacific.

Five hundred poor boys and girls were to be the guests of the local lodge of Elks at a motion picture at the Elks theater the following morning.

The Fourth ward was without water since 9 o'clock the previous night owing to a break in the water main.

SEEN, HEARD and IMAGINED

---that's all there is to life

NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS

It was the night before Christmas and all through the house. Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse; Brother was out on another wild tear. Sis had gone to the hop with her latest affair. The baby slept soundly in neighbor Jones' bed. Parked there by Mother, "for a minute," she said. While Mother, dear soul, after all the day's worry. Played nicker-poll bridge as relief from the flurry. Poor dad, left alone, had gone out by himself. On a nice little faunt to regain his lost health; But Grandpa and Grandma were getting quite old. So the "movies" was all they saw I am told.

ONLY 192 MORE DAYS UNTIL THE FOURTH OF JULY. BETTER DO YOUR STRAW HAT SHOPPING EARLY.

What Christmas Is
The pessimist says it's a job put up by the storekeepers. The optimist says it's a blessed day of rest for tired shoppers. The newlywed says that now he can get rid of some of the wedding presents. The little boy says—"Oh, boy!"

Now if some one would only come forward with a joke proof cigar for the women Christmas shoppers to buy for husbands, dads, brothers and male friends, everything would be superb.

DILEMMA

Daddy wants a radio. And Ma, a Mah-Jongg set: Price of both would fade me, O What should a feller get

—IGNATZ

Do you remember your emotions when you were a kid and got a tin flute and a red mosquito-bar bag with three pieces of hard candy from the Sunday school Christmas tree?

Like Good Little Girls!

"Not a creature was stirring," so goes the poem—no, not even the house mother, because she knew that all the girls were tucked tightly in bed, dreaming sweet dreams of old Saint Nicholas. Such is the power of the Yuletide season over the most alluring dance bids and yet the press criticized the "modern" college girl.

(But, oh boy, she'll make up for the quiet night before Christmas by that New Year's eve party a week later. Just wait and see.)

MADE YOUR PLANS YET?

Soon Merry Christmas will have flew. Upon its merry way. Then all we have to look forward to, Will be just Arbor Day.

Christmas On Same Day For All For First Time

Christmas this year is unique from the fact that for the first time in 350 years practically all of Christendom will celebrate the day on Dec. 25. This means that 125,000,000 of people connected with all the eastern orthodox national churches, of which the Greek and the Russian are chief, will join their hymns of happiness and mingle their praise with those other hundreds of millions of Christians throughout the world who in 1582 accepted the Gregorian calendar.

In that year the pope, Gregory XIII, caused a study to be made of the Julian calendar which had been marking the passage of time since 45 B. C. and promulgated the new or Gregorian calendar, which from that day to this has caused a gap of 14 days between Christmas, as observed in the eastern and western churches.

In May last what is reported to have been a pan-orthodox congress of all the eastern orthodox national churches met and adopted the Gregorian calendar, the change going into effect on Oct. 14 last. The Russian and Greek Catholic church is said to have been the only member of the great eastern family to decline to make the change.

It is interesting to note that among eastern Catholics in the United States there are more than 500,000 Russians, 200,000 Rumanians, 200,000 Roumanians and 100,000 each of Hungarians and Syrians besides many other nationalities. These people are so numerous in certain communities that beyond doubt when all are united in the celebration of Christmas on Dec. 25 American traditional observances will be affected by the colorful lore and customs of these people.

The Julian and consequently our Gregorian calendar was derived from the Egyptians after the latter had been conquered by the Romans. The Egyptian calendar included 360 days divided into 12 30-day months, beyond which extended five days of festival holidays. Julius caused the first confusion in the calendar by making these five extra days the thirty-first days of January, March, May, September and November. Even thus amended the Egyptian system was so great an improvement over the Roman that the senate renamed Julius Caesar's birth month Julius (July) in his honor.

Augustus Caesar, his successor, was so jealous of the honor thus won by Julius in tinkering with the calendar that he had his birth month renamed August for him. Alas for his vanity, it had then only 30 days! To have his distinction parallel that of Julius he filched a day from February, giving August its 31 days but reducing poor February to a scant 28 days "until leap year gives it 29." The plan of Augustus added a day to his quarter of the year. The senate besought him to find some way to add a day to February. He declined, but suggested that the thirty-first day of November might be moved to be December 31st, and this was done.

Even with the changes made under the direction of Pope Gregory a striking feature of which is the introduction of an extra day in February every four years to cover its inaccuracies, the calendar is far from perfect and many ingenious projects are offered from time to time to normalize and simplify our mode of noting the passing days. The change begun this year in the eastern orthodox churches which presently will mean world-wide adoption of the Gregorian calendar will probably be followed then by equally world-wide improvement.

Most of us, and especially the whole Christian world, may leave the problems involved to mathematicians and astronomers. To us there is a basis for added gladness to the Christmas celebration of this year because so many tens of millions of fellow Christians join with us in simultaneous welcome to the Babe of Bethlehem.

You will have to get up early in the morning to beat our Christmas Wish for you today

It's this:
We hope you have so much happiness and so much left over that you'll feel like taking some over to the people who live next door.

Merry Christmas—and the wish that the cornucopia has a blow out right in front of your front door!

Q. How does the amount of water stored in lakes compare with that held in the ocean? J. L.

A. Sir John Murray estimates the volume of the lakes in the world at 2,000 cubic miles, and the water of the ocean at 324,000,000 cubic miles.

Q. Who said "Be sure you are right, then go ahead"? L. M.

A. This was the motto of Davy Crockett in the War of 1812.

Q. What is the name of the poem about Flora McFlimsy? A. S. W.

A. The poem about Flora McFlimsy of Madison Square is called "Nothing to Wear." It was written by W. D. Butler.

Q. Are airships used in life-saving? L. K.

A. They have been used to affect some remarkable rescues. The United States Army Airship D-3 picked up a man recently off Cape Hatteras. The airship was lowered to within 15 feet of the water. Its speed killed by heading into the wind and idling the motors. A rope ladder was allowed to trail in the water as the ship approached the wrecked plane. The aviator grasped the ladder, climbed to safety, ballast to counteract his weight was thrown out and the D-3 was safely on her way.

Q. Are there more letter carriers than postoffices in the United States? J. P.

A. At the end of the last fiscal year there were 39,455 letter carriers and 51,613 post offices.

Q. What time did it get dark in Des Moines, Ia., on the 4th of last July? G. S. T.

A. The Naval Observatory says on July 4, 1923, the sun set at 7:38 P. M., local mean time, at Des Moines, Iowa. Civil twilight, such as suffices for ordinary tasks, ended at about 8:15 P. M.; total darkness fell at about 9:45 P. M.

Q. Please give a list of "weeks" and "days" that are celebrated in the United States? A. R. W.

A. Some of these special weeks and days are: National Education Week, National Thrift Week, Children's Book Week, Apple Week, Boys' Week, Correct Speech Week, Sweden-America Week, Fire Prevention Day, Make-Your-Will Day, Safety Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day, Golden Rule Sunday.

Q. What Detroit automobile factory has a brass band? M. M.

A. The Detroit Board of Commerce says that three Detroit automobile manufacturing plants—the Ford Motor Company, Dodge Brothers Company, and Studebaker Company maintain brass bands made up entirely of factory employees.

Q. What is gooseflesh, and what causes it? B. M.

A. Gooseflesh is the contraction of the little muscles called arrector papillae which are found penetrating the bulbs in the skin at the base of every hair, all over the human body. These muscles are contracted in response to nervous impulses from the "sympathetic" nervous system. It has always been thought that only exposure to cold, or nervous shock could cause gooseflesh, but recent experiments show that if a person plunges the lower half of the body suddenly into pleasantly warm water, the gooseflesh will appear on the upper half of the body, especially in the small of the back.

Q. Is it a universal custom for architects to make a minimum charge of 5 per cent on any contracts regardless of size? M. B. McD.

A. The American Institute of Architects' schedule calls for 10 per cent for small contracts and 6 per cent for large contracts.

Q. Is the Cape to Cairo Railway finished yet? J. W.

A. The Cape-to-Cairo Railroad built from Capetown, Africa to connect with the Egyptian railways, is practically completed.

Q. Are there any of the original manuscripts of the New Testament in existence? A. F.

A. Not one still exists.

Children Of Moose Give Fine Program

Santa Claus Visits Moose Temple With Gifts For Youngsters

Scores of little children were thrilled when Santa Claus made his appearance in Moose hall Sunday evening bringing with him his bag of nuts, apples and candy. Before his coming the tiny tots presented a program of recitations, drills and songs that delighted the audience. The Rev. T. L. Schreckenberg gave a short talk in which he told the children that the greatest day of any child's life was his birthday, but that while the child's birthday was soon forgotten as well as the lives of prominent men and women, the birthday that was always remembered was that of Jesus. After the program the older people were entertained with a social hour. The program follows:

- Piano Solo, "Sabbath Chimes," Mrs. Charles Herrick.
- Recitation, "Mothers Always Do," Dorothy Schultz.
- Recitation, "Merry Xmas Bells," Mary Bonini.
- Recitation, "They're Waiting for Santa," Alice Laura Cavert.
- Piano solo, selected, Evelyn Ashman.
- Recitation, "December," Sheldon Hauert.
- Recitation, "Who Was Born on Christmas Day," Gladys Wood.
- Recitation, "Under the Mistletoe," Alice May Henderson.
- Piano Duet, selected, Miss Estella and Margaret Dohr.
- Recitation, selected, Joseph Mosen.
- Recitation, selected, Florence Mosen.
- Song, "Christ was a little baby," Verna Pfund.
- Address, "What Christmas Means To Us," Rev. F. L. Schreckenberg.
- Recitation, "Joseph and Virgin Mary," Gertrude Aschman.
- Recitation, "I Wrote a Letter to Santa," Marjorie May, Auers.
- Recitation, "The Gift Quarrel," Lorraine Reuhls.
- Recitation, "Two Stockings," Irene DeWendt.
- Piano duet, selected, Margaret and Francis Rooney.
- Dialogue, "One Christmas Eve," Dolores Tustison and Eleanor Herrick.
- Recitations, "A Boys Lament," Edith Wilson.

40 Come Back For Reunion

High School Class Of 1918 Has Enjoyable Evening Of Reminiscences

Forty out of seventy-eight persons who graduated from Appleton high school in 1918 attended the class reunion of that year at the school Saturday evening. The program was devoted to reminiscences, reminiscences, singing of carols and dancing.

Classmates held informal exchange of greetings in the corridors until 8:20 and then proceeded to the dining room, where a program of talks was carried out with George Pfefferle, class president, as chairman. He commented on the attendance at the gathering and read several letters from those who had been unable to come. Greetings also were extended in a communication from Paul G. W. Keller of Waukegan, Ill., who was principal of the school here in 1918, and from Miss Rose McNevin of Chicago, who also was on the faculty at that time. Regrets were sent by others who could not be present.

WELLS SPEAKS

B. W. Wells of the high school faculty, who was instructor of the 1918 alumni, expressed the greetings of the teachers to the "grads." He referred humorously to incidents that he recalled from the class days and commented on changes in the pupils before him. Lee C. Flasey, principal, made an address in which he traced the improvements made in the high school since these people had graduated and commenting on the growth of enrollment from 468 in 1918 to 1,063 in 1923.

There was plenty of laughter when Mr. Wells and Alfred Root, an alumnus, attempted a debate on the question, "Resolved that marriage is an entangling alliance." There was no decision because Mr. Root, supporting the negative, had no experience on which to base his arguments. A census indicated that 11 out of 78 in the class are married.

SING CAROLS

Refreshments were served following the program and the guests then were escorted to the gymnasium, where they sang Christmas carols to the accompaniment of an orchestra.

Queen Esther Girls Chant Yule Carols

If you wake up about 4 o'clock Christmas morning and hear Christmas carols sung on the street or under your window you will know that girls of Queen Esther society of Methodist Episcopal church are the serenaders. These girls have planned to revive the old custom of singing carols on Christmas morning and will go from street to street singing songs that they have been practicing for many days.

CLUBHOUSE OPEN

Appleton Womens clubhouse will be open at 4 o'clock Christmas day for those who wish to spend the evening there. Some of the girls whose homes are not in the city are saving their Christmas gifts to open at the clubhouse.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Graduates of this class are scattered all over the country, those present were told. There were no responses from Canada, Oregon, Texas, New York and many other states. Alfred Root was given credit for making the greatest progress as he is head of the public speaking department of the Teachers college at Aberdeen, S. D.

An interesting feature of the program was the reading of the class prophecy which had been prepared at commencement time. In only one instance was it found that the prophecy had come true, and that was with Miss Verna Butler, who became a nurse.

Two of the pupils, Carol Fairfield Smith and Arthur Ingold, have died. The class voted to have another reunion in 1925.

U. S. WILL GIVE INDIANS BROADER TRIBAL CONTROL

Encouraging Situation Results From Conference Attended By Wheelock

Omaha, Neb. — Wheelock, Omaha attorney, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he had come to attend the meeting of the advisory council on Indian affairs, which held sessions Dec. 12 and 13. Federal representatives entered into but the committee members entered into a broad policy to be followed in the future. The Indian bureau will be reorganized so as to give the Indians a broader control of their own matters and of the division of tribal property among the individuals. The $55,000,000 to money the government is holding belonging to various tribes may be divided among members of the tribes.

The advisory council, which is composed of 100 prominent citizens in 48 states, is now in session. Some of the men who took a prominent part in discussions were George A. B. Hays, William Jennings Bryan, Clifford Pinchot, Arthur Brisbane and Nicholas M. Butler.

The program given by the pupils at district No. 4 school was well received. The school was packed with visitors. A tree with Christmas gifts given out by Santa Claus was appreciated by the children. Miss Katherine Bonge is the teacher. She has 60 pupils.

Mrs. F. Canner (nee Florence Eickes) writes from Oregon that the family is busy clearing a newly purchased farm. The trees there average to cords of wood to a tree and wood sells at $5.50 a cord.

Fugh James damaged his car in DePere a few days ago when trying to avoid running into an automobile with no lights. He ran into the curb, breaking the wheels.

CHURCHES HOLDING YULE EXERCISES

Lutheran Program Will Open With Children's Services Monday Night

Shiocton — There were special Christmas services at the Congregational church Sunday morning by the Rev. N. Conkle. Monday evening the Sunday school will give a Christmas program.

At the Lutheran church the Rev. Ewald Storz will hold the following services during the holiday season: Children's Christmas service at 7:30 Monday evening.

On Sunday, Dec. 29, services in the English language at 9 o'clock.

GIRLS GIVING PROGRAM

On Friday evening, Dec. 28, the Mack-Manley trio will give a musical entertainment at the high school auditorium. The trio is comprised of Miss Eula Mack of Shiocton and the Misses Lorena and Alice Manley of Hortonville. Misses Eula Mack and Lorena Manley, students of the Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., are spending their holiday vacation at their respective homes here. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the new community building.

The following graduates visited high school Thursday: Misses Marian Conkle, Josephine Town and Lucile Wilcox and Ben and Wayne Williams. Lois McCarty, James Colburn, Charles Grandy and Carl Seidel.

Schools closed here Friday for the Christmas vacation.

Earl Patton and Carlos Grandy have returned from the university at Madison for the holidays.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

Quick work of neighbors prevented the home of Louis Locke from being destroyed by fire Tuesday of last week. As Mrs. Locke was preparing dinner she discovered the fire which was caused from an overheated stove. She gave the alarm and the crowd which gathered extinguished it with pails of water. The fire was between the walls and before it was overcome caused damage between two and three hundred dollars.

The following program was given by the pupils of the grades at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening:

Welcome address, Robert Bates. Health exercises, Lloyd G. Key, Mildred Brazz, Clemens Thorp, Emma Schwandt, Harold Poole, Golda Martin, Edith Palmer, Clair Thorp, Bonita Knorr.

Primary recitations, Lois Booth, Willis Andrews, Geraldine Locke, Marion Torne.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS AND TREES ASSURE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Churches Will Hold Yule Programs Monday Evening And On Tuesday

Kaukauna — All Protestant churches of the city will observe Christmas eve Monday evening by holding special programs presented by the Sunday school children. The program in Trinity Lutheran church will begin at 7:30 but in all others will start at 8:00. The schedule of service will be practically the same in every case. The story of the Christ child's birth will be told in song and recitation by the little ones. In each church a Christmas tree will increase the Christmas atmosphere.

More than 200 gifts will be distributed in First Congregational church where the program will be conducted under the leadership of Mrs. H. E. Thompson. Sunday school superintendent. The program by the children will be interspersed with musical numbers by the best talent of the congregation. The pastor, the Rev. Daniel Woodward, also will give a short Christmas address.

Orchestra music will open and close the program in Reformed church. William Klumb, Jr., Sunday school superintendent, will be in charge. The Christmas cantata "The World's Redeemer" which was presented by the combined choirs of the church Sunday evening attracted a large crowd as did the elaborate pageant and cantata "The First Christmas" given in Breckow Methodist church Sunday evening.

Services which annually attract large crowds will be held again this year at midnight Monday in St. Mary church. A beautiful musical service will be given with orchestra accompaniment. Masses will be held at various hours on Thursday.

Christmas day worship will be held Tuesday in the Trinity Lutheran and Reformed churches. In the Lutheran church regular English and German services will be held at 9:30 and 10:30 respectively. A German service also will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Services will be conducted in the German language at 10:15 Tuesday morning in Reformed church. Holy communion will be administered.

Social Items

Kaukauna — Miss Edith and Miss Anna Meyer entertained the PTA PTA club at a Christmas party at their home, 365 E. Seventh Sunday evening. Gifts were exchanged. The evening was spent in social entertainment.

The choir of First Congregational church entertained about 50 small children of the congregation at a Christmas party in the church parlors Friday evening. Games were played. Santa Claus was present and distributed gifts to everyone.

H. S. CLASS OF 1923 HOLDS FIRST REUNION

Kaukauna — The first annual reunion of the high school class of 1923 will be held Thursday evening in Hotel Kaukauna. Dinner will be served at 5:30. Entertainment will be provided by members of the class.

Miss Edna Nee Harris of Neenah, English teacher in the local high school, and William Western, school auditor for the class, will be guests of the group and will be giving talks. The room will be decorated with the class colors, gold and orchid. All of the graduates of 1923 are expected to attend the reunion with the exception of those who have left the city.

Havers Are Wed For 50 Years

Seymour — A quiet celebration will be in progress here Christmas day when Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haver pass the golden milestone of their married life. There will be no elaborate observance, but the children will spend the day at the home.

The children are: Ernest, Gordon, Benjamin, Mrs. Mott, Walter, Mrs. Claude Putnam, Mrs. O. V. Koppel and Bernice Haver, Seymour; Mrs. Herbert Jensen, Milwaukee. The couple also has 25 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Three children died in childhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Haver were married at Appleton Christmas day, Dec. 25, 1875, by the Rev. Mr. Tilton.

Mr. Haver came to Seymour with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Haver, from Canada in the spring of 1880. They settled in the town of Osborn and a short time later purchased 40 acres of land just west of the city and within the city limits.

When Albert Haver's marriage occurred the couple built a house on the southeast corner of the house and lived there for many years until it burned down. They then moved to the city into the home where they now live. Considerable land clearing was done by Mr. Haver. He also has been employed by Northwest Manufacturing company and Seymour Livery barns and for the last five years has been city teamster. He cut and delivered the first meat block used in Seymour. It was for a butcher named Atwood.

Mrs. Haver, nee Ida Putnam, was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam, who had six children. The Putnams came to Seymour from New York state about one month before the Havers.

Mr. Haver's mother, Mrs. David Haver, is still living. She is 90 years old, yet is very active and thinks nothing of walking half a mile every day. She still owns her home on the original homestead.

BELIEVE NIGHT PROWLERS TOOK ALCOHOL FROM MILL

Kaukauna — Two night prowlers broke into the Kaukauna Machine Co. office and plant Friday evening but apparently took nothing but denatured alcohol. The office was ransacked from top to bottom. That alcohol was taken is only a conjecture for it was contained in a barrel with no accurate measure as to its contents. The lock which held the faucet had been broken off.

LITTLE CHUTE H. S. BEGINS VACATION

County Deaths

Seymour — Andrew Doersch, 67, died at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at his home here after collapsing while at work in the barn. Heart disease was the cause.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon at the Lutheran church of Seymour with the Rev. F. Ohtage in charge. Services will be held in both English and German. Burial will be made in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mr. Doersch went to the barn Sunday morning to feed his horse preparatory to going to church. Mrs. Doersch also was working in the barn and found him lying unconscious near the stable. He was carried into the house where he died within a short time.

The decedent was born Dec. 30, 1856 at Centerville, Manitowish, and was married to Thekla Barthel at that place Oct. 12, 1884. They moved immediately to town of Osborn, where they purchased a farm and occupied it until July 1919. The farm then was sold to their son and they moved to the city, taking up residence in a home bought from Joseph Lotter.

Mr. Doersch has been a member of the Lutheran church for more than 40 years and served for a long term as trustee.

He is survived by his widow; one son, Robert, Osborn; four grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Charles Mill, Cleveland. Two sons died in childhood.

SHERIFF WANTS SIX COPS ON FOND DU LAC-CO ROADS

Appointment of six motorcycle officers, not only to check speeding but also to do general police work, has been suggested for Fond du Lac county. The sheriff maintains that it is possible for an officer to give his attention for the most part only to a small portion of the main traveled highways, and as a result other highways are not equally patrolled and speeders as well as automobile accessories thieves take advantage of the motorcycle officer's handicap. Accidents also would be decreased by the help of a good police patrol system on county highways.

CHARLIE PERFORMS ALL DUTIES OF COOP EXCEPT LAY EGGS

Omaha, Neb. — Significance back of the recent "Father and Son" week may have gone over the heads of a lot of folks. But not over Charlie's.

It stirred a new sense of responsibility in him, so Joe Sherman, his owner here, avows.

Charlie's only a rooster. But he quit his crowing and barnyard strutting when enlisted with the paternalistic urge, to take up an egg hatching job, abandoned by his socially ambitious wife, Pauline.

While madame cackled her gossip about the henner, Charlie sat on the forgotten nest, keeping his embryo family warm.

For 24 days he remained at the post, to the end that a swarm of brood of chicks now attest the devotion of his vigil.

And Charlie's revived cock-a-doodle-do is translated to mean: "I'll be a mother to you."

Sick Four Years Yet
Is Success

Friends Are Best Investment,
Says Woman Who Writes
Though Aged

New York — After lying flat on her back for four years, Nellie Revell has substantiated her favorite theory that the greatest investment in the world is Friendship.

Now she is drawing her dividends. A diseased spine put this remarkable woman to bed and kept her there almost motionless these last four years. In all that time she had put up a gay game fight against misfortune and even death.

Before she went to the hospital Miss Revell had friends all over the country. She was one of the first women press agents, one of the highest paid and the best.

During those years she lay strapped to a board, able to move only her head and hands, she kept her old friends and made many others.

"OFF THE CHEST"

Her almost helpless condition did not discourage Nellie Revell. She began writing a column of humor for a New York theatrical paper, and later for a daily wrote with a pen of paper on her chest and a pencil suspended by a cord from the ceiling. The column was full of hope and optimism.

It was on the suggestion of Irving Cobb that Miss Revell started her book, "Right Off the Chest," literally written on her chest.

"When I finished the book," she says, "I realized I had failed—I had written a book intended to bring hope and cheer into the lives of others, and I was still in the hospital."

"INSPIRED BY BOOK"

Then there I determined to get out, and I did. Moved with my day and night nurse to a hotel right in the heart of Broadway. I could actually say I had worked off my hospital sentence and won the fight.

"When it was announced I had been over a thousand patients, some soldiers confined to their cots, some incurable cripples, and some discouraged invalids. All assured me that my winning the fight made them feel it was worth while going on."

"Friends—they're the only real satisfaction in the world. Love is like currency. If it is hoarded, it loses its value. If it is put into circulation, it accumulates in transit."

Kitchen

(Unless otherwise specified, these recipes are planned for four persons)

CHAFING DISH RECIPES

A chafing dish supper is a delightfully informal way to entertain a small group of friends.

More than six or eight persons should not be served from one dish. If a large party is wanted use two dishes, one at each end of the table. Everything should be prepared to cook and all ingredients assembled for the greatest convenience of the cook. When the various dishes containing the raw materials are emptied they should be removed from the table.

The menu should be light and secondary to the chafing dish connection. A salad may or may not be served, as the hostess sees fit. Sandwiches that are acceptable with the dish prepared are often used in place of reheated rolls. The dessert might be some Christmas fruit cake and a simple Spanish or Bavarian cream.

Chicken a la King is always a chafing dish standby as is "Welsh rarebit." These dishes are expensive, especially the chicken, and rather difficult to make.

Shrimp wiggle, sturgeon fillet, turkey and chicken are attractive simple dishes that the most inexperienced cook can prepare on a chafing dish.

SHRIMP WIGGLE

Two cups shrimp, 1 small can peas, 1 1/2 cups milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper.

The shrimp should be cleaned and put in a bowl. The peas removed from the can, rinsed in cold running water, drained and placed in a bowl. The other ingredients should be measured and arranged in dishes around the chafing dish for the cook.

Melt butter in blazer over the flame. Stir in flour and slowly add milk. Season with salt and pepper and shrimp and peas and cook, stirring constantly until thick and smooth. Put hot water in the water pan, place over blaze and put the blazer over hot water or keep mixture hot while serving. Serve on toast or crisp crackers.

STURGEON DITTY

Two and one-half cups tomatoes, 1 cup grated cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup plain mustard, 1 green pepper, 5 tablespoons butter, 2 eggs, 1 cup mushrooms, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1 teaspoon celery pepper.

The pepper should be blanched and minced. Melt butter, add tomatoes, cheese, pepper and mushrooms, stirring constantly. Season. When very hot but not bubbling stir in eggs well beaten. Cook until eggs are creamy, stirring lightly with a fork. Serve on toast.

BUNNY HUG

Two cups grated or finely cut cheese, 2 eggs, 2 tablespoons butter,

No. 3—Opening the Wall

The previous articles carried us up to the point where the wall had been built, four-sided and solid. Now we will break it and start play.

East Wind makes one throw of the two dice, totals the points so thrown, and starts counting counter-clockwise around the walls, commencing with his own. Thus, the East Wall is one, the South Wall two, the West Wall three, etc.

He stops when he has counted a number equal to the throw of the dice, and that is the wall to be opened. After playing a few evenings, the actual counting is omitted as you will learn from experience.

will learn from experience that East Wall is one, five or nine, South, two, six or ten, West, three, seven or eleven, and North, four, eight or twelve.

THROW DICE AGAIN

Determination of the exact spot to be opened in the wall thus selected is made by another throw of the dice, this time by him whose wall is to be opened.

He throws the two dice and the total of the throw is added to the total thrown by East in determining the wall to be opened. Thus if East threw six, the South Wall would be opened. If South then threw five, the six thrown by East and the five thrown by South would be added, giving a total of 11.

Taking the latter number, he whose wall is to be opened starts counting from the right and of his wall, counts one on each pair of tiles to the left and removes that pair of tiles. This number corresponds to the determined number in the example given above, it

Age Leaves Heritage
In Handicraft Lesons

Tallahassee, Fla.,—Fourth and Old Age meet here, one to provide a belated education for the other, the other to leave a valuable heritage from the past.

Both teaching and learning for their own mutual benefit attend the Tallahassee Industrial School, which is owned, managed and directed by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. Aged women come down from their mountain homes to teach handicraft to the young girls of the school, while the younger generation reciprocates by teaching the three R's to the older folk.

Thus, from the picturesque past will remain such legacies as the knowledge of spinning and weaving, of making old book-rugs and patchwork quilts—things the old women who have been induced to come down from the mountains for this purpose.

CUSTOMS PRESERVED

"These grandmothers and great-grandmothers are the connecting link between colonial and modern America," explains Mrs. T. J. Stevens, treasurer of the school.

"The mountaineers are the real descendants of the colonial settlers, who have retained the old customs and arts while living their secluded lives in the mountains, where some of them live almost as primitively as they did 200 years ago."

"They still know how to spin and card wool and weave it into hand-made fabrics so much in demand now. Through them we hope to restore to this generation the handicrafts which would otherwise be lost."

"The children who come to our school do not feel so estranged from their parents when they realize what a heritage of arts is theirs."

"It is a beautiful sight to see a little girl trying to teach her grandmother to read in return for her grandmother's instruction in piecing a quilt."

of an egg until all the dressing has been used.

BROKEN GLASS

Whenever glass has been broken on the floor it is well to go over the spot with a wool cloth as tiny particles that could not be removed by the broom will be taken up in a cloth.

BETTER CANDY

If you add a tablespoon of cornstarch to every two cups of sugar you will find the texture of your candy greatly improved.

RENEWED SHOES

When the children's overshoes get very dingy and dull looking go over them with a cloth wrung out of ammonia water.

SHELF SPACE

Have plenty of shelves in your kitchen within the reach of your hands.

SUN THE RUGS

Whenever possible sun your rugs before sweeping or vacuum-cleaning them.

PILLOW COVERS

Covers for sofa pillows should be made so that they may be removed easily and cleaned frequently as they accumulate much dust.

Velvet Plays
Star Role In Style Pageant

Paris — The French couturiers have many points of difference, but in two respects they all think as one:

1. All stress the long, straight line.

2. All grant velvet the star role in the fashion pageant.

The velvet of this season is so soft and supple that it may be used for any type of costume, and it comes in subtle colors that may be obtained in no other fabric.

Changeable velvets are new and very fascinating, and they cry out and ask to be draped. Figured velvets come in very rich colors and complicated designs, and hence are used for the simplest type of straight-line frocks, or are combined with a solid tissue cloth or with plain colors.

These figured velvets are used not only for gowns, but for coats and for linings for coats, and particularly for smart little jackets to be worn with plain frocks or straight-line blouses combined with fur.

In evening frocks, velvet in pastel or in vivid tones is very smart, and it is most frequently combined with fur—the richer the fur the better. Naturally ermine is the ideal complement of black velvet, but fox and monkey fur are not to be despised.

The old idea that velvet did not require any decoration has been quite discarded this season. Frequently a frock is covered entirely with embroidery to give the effect of a figured material. Or it is beaded elaborately with colored beads of all sizes and shapes. Pearl embroidery is effectively used, but rhinestones give a much more gorgeous effect.

FASHION HINTS

TAILORED MOIRE

Tailored suits of black moire are very smart, particularly when worn with lingerie frocks and small velvet hats.

TAPESTRY JACQUETTE

A stunning jacquette is made of "tapestry" banded with fox and worn with a skirt or dark green wool.

BEADED WRAPS

Beaded evening wraps are seen at all the most fashionable gatherings—crystals, pearls or jet being the popular beads.

BEIGE FOR AFTERNOON

For strictly tailored frocks all shades of beige are used, as well as the popular black and white combination.

GLOVES AND HOSIERY

Gloves and hosiery match now. One house sells matching sets, with the cloaking on the stockings and the pointings on the glove backs being also the same shade.

Two-Cloth Dresses

These are little dresses that a skillful needlewoman can make for her young daughter from the half-yards and remnants every woman likes to buy and seldom finds a use for.

Wool plaid and plain serge are used for the straight-line school dress with short sleeves. Figured silk and plain wool crepe are combined in the high-necked long-sleeved dress. The third model, with the deep yoke, is of two shades of wool jersey and has a touch of hand embroidery for trimming.

Combinations of two materials are attractive and very much in favor just now. These are only suggestions for their use—there are dozens of other ways they may be effectively combined.

Bootleggers Kept In Fear
Of Woman Constable

Seldom Seen, Pa. — Bootleggers were often seen in Seldom Seen in days gone by.

But now, thanks to a militant woman constable, they are seldom seen in Seldom Seen.

Woe be to them, when they are! For Mrs. Julia M. Fife, who enforces the law and preserves the peace in North St. Clair township, will see to it that they won't be seen again in Seldom Seen.

Mrs. Fife, be it known, has put the moonshine distillers, gamblers and others of their ilk on the run. Since taking office, she has rid the town of every undesirable element.

Today all 25 of Seldom Seen's citizens are the most peaceable and law-abiding folks one could hope to meet anywhere in this big old U. S. A.

Mrs. Fife did it all without firing a single shot. She refuses to carry a pistol. Verbal shots are the only ones she uses in her war to keep the lid on Seldom Seen.

Despite her Carrie Nation crusade, Mrs. Fife still has plenty of time to devote to her nine children.

And—oh, yes, we almost forgot—she looks after half a dozen dogs, besides.

MRS. JULIA M. FIFE

Egg Whip Will Take Place Of Missing Cream

When you have no cream and desire a filling to take its place, whip the white of two eggs to a stiff froth, add one cupful of grated apple and one cupful of sugar. It is a most delicious substitute.

After frying onions, pour a little vinegar into the frying-pan, let it get hot, and it will remove the odor from the pan.

If you have no jar covers, brush a paper with boiled linseed-oil and dry. It will be waterproof.

Save your orange, lemon and grapefruit rinds, grate them, put into a paper bag and dry. Pack in air-tight jars and you will have a delicious flavoring for desserts and puddings.

In making one-crust pies where the whites of eggs are used for the top, just before putting in oven to brown sprinkle meringue lightly with sugar; this forms a slight crust. The meringue will not be sticky and is also nicer to cut.

When cooking fish, rub butter or lard (which has been melted) down the backbones. When the fish is done, take hold of one end of bone, remove carefully and all the bones can be taken out at once.

By melting granulated sugar in a saucepan and stirring until slightly scorched before adding water, you will have an excellent substitute for maple-syrup.

When grapes are about ready to ripen, try tying up about half the crop in paper bags. They will ripen into finer grapes and keep until frost.

To prevent cake from sticking after being taken out of baking-pan, sprinkle sugar on pan or board before turning cake on it. The sugar is easily brushed off when the cake is cool.

When canning peaches, after they are scalded and peeled immerse in cold water for three minutes. Cut in halves and you will find the stones remove very easily—no breaking in to small pieces.

Add a teaspoonful of sugar to your batter for waffles or pancakes, and they will brown much quicker.—From The Designer Magazine.

HAITI WIPES OUT RABIES
BY KILLING STRAY DOGS

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti.—When the American Sanitary Service found itself confronted with an epidemic of rabies in Port-Au-Prince, it went to the heart of the matter by going after the dogs, the numberless dogs, that infest the city streets, and remind world-wide travelers of Constantinople, so they tell us.

The citizens were given due notice, and then a liberal supply of poisoned meat was distributed throughout the city.

LITTLE SICKNESS IN APPLETON MARS MERRY CHRISTMAS

December Has Been "Healthy Month," Health Officer's Report Shows

"Pretty well, thank you." That is Appleton's answer to a number of inquiries into the state of its health. The outlook is that most families will enjoy a happy Christmas unalloyed by the presence of serious illness or the fear of contagion.

All in all, December has been quite a healthy month as far as it has gone. Advocates of "the open winter" and those who like snow and cold seem to agree that the balmy spring weather of this month left few bad effects.

Although there are a few cases of diphtheria and other contagious diseases, the situation is nothing to worry about and does not in the least approach the semblance of an epidemic, said Dr. W. C. Felton, city health commissioner.

In other cities a widespread prevalence has spurred many persons not exposed to diphtheria to go to the health officer and take advantage of the "Shick" test whereby it can be

NATIONAL C. OF C. MEETS IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland is the city chosen for the next nationwide meeting of the chamber of Commerce of the United States, according to word received by the local chamber of commerce. The national board of directors met early this month and fixed May 8, 6, 7 and 8 as the dates of the gathering. The board also arranged for a referendum on the coal situation and is pushing the relief work by the government for disabled veterans of the World war.

HOLD ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING ON JAN. 1

The annual meeting of Emmanuel Evangelical congregation will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Jan. 1, 1924. Election of trustees and presentation of reports will be the principal business.

Immediately after the congregational meeting the Sunday school will hold its annual session.

determined whether one is immune or subject to that disease. If it is found that they are not immune the inoculation with toxin-antitoxin is given. In Appleton this is little evidence of that precaution, since most people will not resort to such preventive measure until they are scared into doing it, Dr. Felton said.

Edna Ferber, Sol Levitan? In Who's Who

An Appleton person is included in the Jewish "Who's Who," a collective biography of prominent Jews. Listed in the group of Hebrew people who have distinguished themselves in the field of literature is Miss Edna Ferber, former Appleton newspaperwoman, whose books are known to thousands of American readers.

The Jewish "Who's Who," just off the press, contains biographies of 160 prominent Jews in America. Among them are Solomon Levitan, State treasurer of Wisconsin; David Lawrence, internationally known newspaper correspondent whose articles appear daily in the Appleton Post-Crescent; Julius Kahn congressman from California, who is well known to Appleton people for the address he once delivered here; Samuel Gompers, for more than 30 years head of the American Federation of Labor; Jascha Heifetz and Mischa Elman, well known violinists; Alia Nazimova, noted motion picture actress; Carl Laemmle, wealthy film producer, formerly of Oaklawn.

GIRL THAT MEN FORGET LEADS SHEET MUSIC SALES

Many people are singing Edwin Tillman's newest and most popular song, "Lonesome and Blue," which may also be had on phonograph records. Eddie Tillman, as he is popularly known here, formerly was an Appleton boy and now heads the National Music Co. of Milwaukee. He also is the writer of "Venetian Blues."

"Just a Girl That Men Forget" is by far the most popular piece of sheet music just at present, and with it may be classed "Tin Roof Blues" and "I'm Sitting Pretty in a Pretty Little City." "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," a semi-classical piece, although not new, has had a large number of sales. The five most popular pieces in local music shops last week were:

Mrs. S. Nolan—"The West A Nest and You, Just a Girl That Men Forget, Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses, Wonderful One, Mama Goes Where Papa Goes."

Metzer Saeger—"Indiana Moon, I'm Sitting Pretty in a Pretty Little City, Lonesome and Blue, I Love You, Kalua Moon."

Irving Zuehlke—"Just a Girl That Men Forget, If I Can't Get the Sweetie I Want, Last Night on the Back Porch, Little Red Schoolhouse, Tin Roof Blues."

RIPON DEBATE TEAMS HAVE HARD SCHEDULE

Ripon college faces one of the hardest debate schedules in its history. Among the colleges with which it will compete are Lawrence college of Appleton, University of North Dakota, Northwestern college at Naperville, Wesleyan university, Carroll college and St. Olaf college. Lawrence will meet Ripon on Feb. 28. It will be the team's first visit in Ripon since 1920.

Miss Mildred Rears, musical comedy actress, called by Edgar Selwyn the "most beautiful creature in America," is the star of the season for predicting record-breaking attendance at the Citizens Military Training Camps next summer. The actress, who is doing some irreverent comedy, Miss Rears is in the galaxy of army favorites when she said a loud "amen" to Pershing's wish that when a man asks you to fight, him make him show his M. Don't get the idea that because Mrs. Joan J. Hallenbeck of Garden City, L. I., is 88 she can't drive an auto. Recently she was arrested in Miami, Fla., charged with violating the speed law. Here she is, with the car officials say she made travel 62 miles an hour.

New York is soon to see, it is reported, a new church building which will reach higher in the air than the Woolworth Building now does. It will be called the "Broadway Temple" and will be situated on Broadway near 172nd street. The announcement was made by an official of the Chelsea M. E. Church.

These boots and spurs, recently exhibited in connection with the Diamond Jubilee of Fort Worth, Tex., were declared the prize-winning footwear of the Lone Star state. The lengthy rowels are really annoying to a bucking broncho when you dig them in his side.

Forty-eight quarts of milk a day? No, it isn't the driver's order for a restaurant. It's the average of aristocratic Carnation Sergie Pietertje. She's heralded as the world's champion for all breeds and ages. She totaled 35,504 pounds this year. Her best day's work was 63 quarts. Carnation, now 10 years old, is owned by E. A. Stuart of Carnation, Wash.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES GET VACATION ON CHRISTMAS DAY

No Rural Mail Delivery Tomorrow—City Carriers Stop At Noon

The regular holiday service will be in effect on the Appleton postoffice on Christmas day, but the usual Christmas delivery will be curtailed by order of the United States postal department at Washington.

All service windows will be open from 8 to 10 o'clock in the morning for the sale of stamps, receipt of parcel post, issuance of money orders, registry of mail, etc. Although the general delivery window will be open for business, no city or rural delivery will be made from this window.

There will be no rural delivery at all and only a partial city delivery. City letter carriers after sorting their mail and preparing it for delivery will start out on their routes but stop work at 12 o'clock. The same is true of the parcel post carriers. Because of large amount of mail to be sorted, it is doubtful whether much mail will be delivered. Special delivery letters and certain perishable articles will be delivered.

Honor Roll Of Good Fellows

The annual campaign of the Good Fellows club to raise money to make Christmas merry for the needy closes today. The final list of contributors to the Good Fellows fund will be printed on Wednesday.

Although the number of families in Appleton that require aid is almost as great as last year, there has been a decided decrease in the amount of money contributed. Last year slightly more than $1,400 was donated to the good but this year the contributions probably will not reach $1,200. Early this morning the Good Fellows fund totalled $1,140 and only scattered contributions were expected during the day.

Ollie, Noted Holstein Sire, Ends His Career

Several important youngsters of Outagamie-co are mourning the loss of their father and in fact a whole world is regretting the loss of this same notable parent.

The youngsters are the Holstein bulls and heifers descending from Ollie Jobanna Sir Payne and the world that mourns his death is the great realm of Holstein breeders. The end of this famous herd sire's existence is announced in the latest issue of the Holstein Friesian World. An extensive article deals with his dairy achievement.

Special interest is attached to the death announcement in this country, because a number of Holstein breeders were members of what was known as the Ollie club, which had the use of this sire in breeding. Sir Ollie was brought to Macville for several weeks in 1921 through efforts of Paul Stock Farms. He then was purchased by O. Nyhus, who then was farm agent of the First National bank. In this way numbers of farmers were able to obtain cattle of one of the most noted breeding strains known.

The bull at the time he was brought here and at the time of his death was owned by G. D. Kelley of New London and Christensen Bros. of Royalton. He was eating his usual ration of hay in his barn at Royalton when he suddenly dropped dead.

"The last of the Ollies" is the way the Holstein magazine describes him. He is the last of the three sons of Ollie Watson Prima Donna, late leader of the Holstein breed. These were the best known show animals and scored many times as national grand champions.

Ollie was born at the farm of August Krospe, Dodge-co, in the early 1900's. He was taken from there to Iowa and then sold to Carnation weeks in 1921 through efforts of Paul Stock Farms. He then was purchased by O. Nyhus, who then was farm agent of the First National bank. In this way numbers of farmers were able to obtain cattle of one of the most noted breeding strains known.

By Associated Press
Janesville.—Plunged beneath an automobile when it went off the concrete road near Sharon, Paul Wolcott, 19, Sharon, was burned to death Saturday night. Wolcott with George Stoll was going to a dance at Clinton with Stoll driving. The car went off the road, turned turtle and the automobile caught fire. Wolcott dying before the fire was extinguished.

ZION CHILDREN IN YULE PROGRAM

Children of Zion school and of Zion Lutheran church will present a Christmas program consisting of recitations, drills and songs at 7 o'clock Christmas eve in the church. A big tree has been decorated for the occasion and books and candy are to be distributed to the children after the program. The pastor will have three services on Christmas day, one in German at 6 o'clock, an English service at 9 o'clock and the third service in German at 10.15. A German service also will be held at 10.15 Wednesday morning.

JURY ALLOWS $20,000 FOR LEG LOST IN RAIL CRASH

By Associated Press
Waukegan, Ill.—The largest award in a personal injury suit in Lake-co was given Eugene Bolle of Waukegan, a former switchman, a jury allowing him $20,000 for the loss of a leg in a verdict against the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. Bolle's leg was lost two years ago when he was squeezed between a switch engine and a coal chute at Beach, Ill.

SNOW SUBSTITUTE

Even if we have California weather some children will not be cheated out of sliding. As I was passing Marston's wood yard this morning I saw two little boys sliding down the large sardine. They had a large piece of tin about a yard square and used this in place of a sled. By their looks they were enjoying it as much as snow.

GEO. WALSH CO.

1924 Promises to Be a Big Building Year

Four billion dollars was invested in new buildings in this country in 1922, five billions in 1923, and eight billions more is required to catch up with demand. One of the leading building financiers in the country published these figures recently, and predicted that 1924 would probably see more money invested in new buildings than 1923.

This means a steady increase of demand for electric service. It means Wisconsin investors will have a continuing opportunity to invest their savings in this business, financing its growth to meet the increase of demand for all kinds of electric service.

Since May 1, 1923, more than 5,000 Wisconsin men and women have bought $500,000 of Wisconsin Gas & Electric 7% participating preferred shares, and close to $2,500,000 of Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light 7% cumulative preferred shares, through our Securities Department. The remainder of the $3,000,000 issue of Milwaukee Electric preferred shares put on sale May 1 will be sold out early in 1924.

For a permanent 7% income investment we know of nothing better than these shares. Each share pays a cash dividend of $7 a year—$1.75 March 1, $1.75 June 1, $1.75 September 1, $1.75 December 1, by checks mailed to share-holders.

Thousands of men and women have formed the wise habit of saving regularly part of what they earn, through buying Milwaukee Electric and Wisconsin Gas & Electric preferred shares on monthly payments. In this way they get 7% interest on every dollar invested, from the start. Paying $5 down and $5 a month per share for eighteen months, their accrued interest at 7%, credited on the last payment, takes care of the nineteenth monthly payment. Thus, in 18 months from the day they buy shares, they have them paid for and begin drawing regular 7% dividends, paid every three months.

The shares cost $100 each, bought either for cash or on payments. You can buy one share or as many more as you want. We shall be pleased to have you come in and talk it over with us, or let us send a salesman or a circular with full details. Mail orders filled by registered letter.

ZWICK FACES TOUGH JOB TO STICK WITH MEISSNER

Menominee Boy Meets Kaukauna Sheik With Formidable K. O. Record

Pair Of Fighters On Main Go Of Appleton News Car Logical Title Contenders

Jack Zwick, Kaukauna Sheik, is regarded as one of the logical contenders for state honors in his division, and is said to be going stronger than ever. He will need to be when he racks up against Archie Meissner, champion of New Years Day, and the upstate man's recent record ought to give the Sheik plenty to think about. Recently "Iron Mike" Kawalski was selected to stop the Menominee flash. Mike had a formidable record in his last four fights. He had defeated Jack Rudy in Chicago in six rounds, knocked out Jack Walsh in two, killed Jimmy Duffy to rest in three and put Tommy McCarthy to sleep in six. This record didn't help the iron man with Archie, however. The coming champ had Mike down twice in the fourth, and only the gong saved him. The fifth gave the fight to Meissner. This clearly showed that the northerner has a wicked punch, and the Kaukauna Sheik will have to be careful not to walk into a swing from a boy touted to carry an anesthetic in either mitt.

Bill Burns was next sent up to get Meissner. According to pre-fight dope, it looked as though Archie would get matched, but he won by a wide margin and upset all the dope. Burns packs an awful wallop, but never had a lookin with the shifty Meissner, who carried the fight and did all the leading.

CONQUERS MONAHAN
After that, George Ryan, popular Milwaukee manager, sent out word that he had a boy who could handle the Menominee flash. Jack Monahan was the challenger's name. He had been knocking out his opponents with remarkable regularity. He too fell before Archie's lefts and rights.

The big question now is "What can this flashy fighter do with Zwick?" Jack is conceded to be one of the toughest and most rugged fighters in his division. He is back in his old form after losing a bad cold which kept him from working out for a while, and can make the best of them; step to cop a verdict in ten rounds.

This pair is well matched. The men may be regarded as logical contenders for the state title, and Badger fans are watching the outcome of their clash with deep interest.

THEY call Johnny Dundee a freak fighter and we suppose it's on account of his willingness to fight once he gets into the ring.

We still don't know what a moral victory is, but an immoral victory is one that is given to a fighter by New York judges.

It is said that Judge Landis and Ben Johnson did not exchange holiday greetings, both of them preferring to exchange rights and lefts.

One of these days the baseball experts will overreach themselves and actually trade Rogers Hornsby.

And then what will they do for copy?

Clarke Griffith is eminently qualified to manage his Washington ball club.

It is said that Mr. Griffith delights in taking orders from himself.

America owns one-fourth of the world's volcanoes. This does not include Charles Webb Murphy, who is no longer in baseball.

Tennis players are at hand to show that a statistician will run five miles in playing five sets. And while we are not exactly dumfounded at the revelation we must confess a limited amount of mild surprise.

We see by the papers that Gouverneur Morris, the author, claims to have shot the Del Monte (Calif. course) in 68. It is needless to add that Mr. Morris specializes in fiction.

One of the players named on Walter Camp's All-America team used to be a foundry boss, so he is probably strong enough to stand the embarrassment.

A champion fighter is fined $25 for traveling too fast in his motor car.

It is never necessary to fine a champion fighter for traveling too fast in the ring.

Big league ball players are flocking to Cuba where it is easy to acquire the pink of condition. If you haven't forgot how to rest your feet on the brass rail.

The venerable Jack Britton will not be able to fight again for several days. He has developed a rheumatic quiver in his left clutch.

M'TIGUE REFUSES TO BATTLE CARP OR GENE TUNNEY

Light Heavyweight Champ Refuses To Patch Differences With Manager

New York—Prospects for a match between Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight, and either Eugene Tunny, the American 175 pound titleholder, or Georges Carpentier were practically eliminated on Saturday when McTigue and his manager, Joe Jacobs, failed to blich up their differences at a conference with Promoter Tex Rickard.

McTigue declared after the conference that he would not go through with the contract Jacobs signed for a fight with Tunny, and also refused to accept his manager's compromise terms for a bout with Carpentier.

McTigue added that he probably would leave in the near future for Europe in search of fights, not returning to the United States until August, when his contract with Jacobs expires.

It was pointed out, however, that the light heavyweight champion, under the state athletic commission's rules would become automatically suspended if he fails to go through with the Tunny match for April, when the time limit for fulfilling that contract expires.

Tebell Will Help Coach Iowa Quints

Madison—Gus Tebell, star football and basketball player of the University of Wisconsin, has been signed by the University of Iowa to aid Coach Sam Barry with the freshman basketball team, according to information received here. Tebell is scheduled to take up his work at Iowa immediately. The former Badger star was selected by many sport writers as all conference guard on the mythical all western conference basketball five last season. He is thoroughly familiar with Coach Walter Meenwell's style of coaching and will be considerable aid to the Iowans in preparing for games against Wisconsin this season, it is said.

Coach A. C. Denny's Lawrence basketball players will return to school several days before the rest of the collegians assemble after the holidays, in order to prepare for their contest with the alumni on Jan. 3.

While the Blues were going strong when their stopped drill last week, their days of inactivity may soften them, and to offset this Denny has requested them to come back early. The loss of all of his freshman stars gives Coach Denny cause for worry. Heideman, Bries and Mills, all former Appleton high school men, had been picked for the regular lineup, but the recent ruling of Little Eight coaches prevents them and other yearlings from playing until after Feb. 1.

In spite of this loss, there are two men for every position remaining on the first string, and if these men keep up to the standard developed in practice games and displayed in their scrimmage with Lawrence pickups last week, they should manage to worry along alone until the Frosh can help them out.

CELEBRITIES INVITED TO FOOTBALL BANQUET
By Associated Press
Los Angeles—Football coaches of national fame who will be in Pasadena for New Year's game will be guests at an interfraternity banquet in the Biltmore hotel here, Dec. 25. Secretary of the Navy Denby, Admiral B. Wilson, superintendent of the Naval Academy and Admiral S. Robinson, commander in chief of the United States battle fleet have been invited.

RUTGERS STAR MAKES LONGEST PASS OF YEAR
To Homer Hazel of Rutgers goes the distinction of making the longest forward pass of the year, a fling that traveled exactly 65 yards, and which netted a net gain of 55 yards. Hazel made the pass against Villanova, Anderson, and, completing the catch.

British Stars Lack Money To Make Trip Here
Whether England will send a team of amateur golfers to this country to compete in the Walker cup play depends entirely on finances. At present the situation is rather dark, although the Britishers are hopeful of settling on ways and means to raise the money to cover expenses. When have it out with the University, the British team came over in 1922. The money was raised by popular subscription, and a deficit resulted. In day, the money is to practice at Chillingham in Colorado. Pasadena will be the site of the match on Friday. A deficit is taken from a fund required in reaching early Sunday morning. Some major tournaments. No admissions are charged abroad.

Ham Handed Frosh

BACK 15 years ago the New York club of the American League had a southpaw pitcher by the name of Harry Abels who could grab a ball in his left hand and completely envelope same. 'Abels' was a pitching curiosity. Large hands are supposed to be a decided asset to a baseball pitcher since enables him to get a much better grip on the ball. A majority of the star pitchers in the majors have big hands. It failed to work in Abels' case, however, as his stay in the majors was of short duration. He had plenty of stuff, but lacked control.

For years "Horse" Haggerty, star center of the New York Celtics, has been one of the curiosities of the basketball sport because of the way he can manipulate a basketball. A big pair of hands makes it possible for him to do all kinds of peculiar stunts with the ball to the embarrassment of the opposition.

Now comes a rival for Haggerty in the person of a college athlete, Charles Bickling, a lanky freshman at Wittenberg. In the picture Bickling is shown holding a basketball at arms length. If you think it is easy, borrow a basketball and try it.

Lawrence Basketball Men Must Work Hard To Offset Loss Of Frosh

The sledge hammer blows Cricqui received from Dundee at the Polo grounds broke down some of his indomitable spirit. The fears of the bleacher fans did the rest.

"I was unconscious on the floor until they about reached my ears. 'So you're champion.' 'Cricqui' decided to show them how a champion went down and never would have quit if I had been killed. I stayed fifteen rounds. I didn't know how it was that Johnny didn't lay me out for keeps when I came up for the second round. Don't ever talk boxing to me again, except for another chance at Dundee."

SPORT VIEWS AND NEWS
Muggsy McGraw was among the passengers aboard the Leviathan when the big ocean liner got stuck tight on a reef in New York harbor. The "Giant's" manager was credited with saying something about a "grounder" when he stepped ashore. What's more, McGraw added that the Brookly offer of $275,000 for Roger Hornsby was nothing to get excited about because three years ago he bid $300,000 for the shortstop.

Cub Buck, Lawrence football coach, would just as soon perform in a pigskin encounter as referee a basketball game. Buck worked the East-West Green Bay encounter the other night, and it kept him mighty busy following the ball. For a big fellow, Cub is pretty fast on his feet and will bet he ran several miles last Friday night in the caging encounter.

Bill Tilden, America's greatest tennis player, may not compete in the Olympic games in France for Uncle Sam. Despite the racket with Hackett, Tilden is still thinking of the Davis cup play and he figures that this competition is more important than the world-wide competition in Paris. Maybe so but we'll bet he gets a ride from the Olympic committee for his attitude.

Coach Bill Roper is going to sing his own song as a pigskin mentor next fall. At least, that is what the Tiger gradson chief says. Roper hopes to wind up his football career by turning out a winner at Tigertown. He has a number of veterans back, and the freshman squad, this fall, was blessed with some good material.

Roger King has been rated as one of the country's leading pigskin experts. The Navy team left Saturday night for the Pacific coast, where on New Year's Day, the future Admirals will have it out with the University of Washington. The Middies are slated for two workouts en route. In day, the squad is to practice at Chillingham in Colorado. Pasadena will be the site of the match on Friday. A deficit is taken from a fund required in reaching early Sunday morning. Some major tournaments. No admissions are charged abroad.

COACH WALSH PICKS MEN FOR CHAMPION'S BASKETBALL QUINT

Captain Martin Will Hold Down Position As Forward; Lawrence In Opener

Prairie Du Chien—Martin, captain of the Campion college basketball team, will hold down a forward position on the team this year, according to selection of a team personnel made by Coach Walsh. He held a like position last year at Campion. His home is at Waukesha.

Brick, a husky from Minneapolis, is placed at center, while Brezeau, formerly of St. Mary's, Kas., but now hailing from Turners' Fall, Mass., seems to be assured of a guard position; Blayz of Toledo, O., and O'Connell, Chicago, will alternate in the other guard position and Roberts, Toledo, O., and Flynn, East Chicago, are scheduled to change off playing the other forward position. O'Connell was one of the team's regulars last season.

Last year Campion defeated Columbia college, St. Ambrose, Luther college, the Wisconsin School of Mines and St. Mary's college of Winona, Minn.

Following is the schedule for this season:
Jan. 10—Lawrence college at Campion.
Jan. 17—St. Ambrose at Campion.
Jan. 18—St. Thomas at Campion.
Jan. 25—Campion at Dubuque university.
Jan. 28—Mt. Morris college—pending.
Feb. 7—St. Mary's at Campion.
Feb. 9—Campion at Columbia college.

Feb. 16—Luther at Campion.
Feb. 23—Loyola college at Loyola.
Feb. 28—Columbia at Campion.
Coach Walsh has been a little over a year at Campion college, coming here as head coach, in the fall of 1922. He graduated from Holy Cross college in 1921, where he played four years on the football squad. In 1918 and 1919, he starred at right half for that college. It was in 1920 that Holy Cross held Harvard to a bare three point lead.

Two Weeks Left For Entries In Bowling Meet At Janesville

All Of Last Year's Champions Registered For State Tourney Expected To Be Greatest In History

January 6, 1924, the closing date of entries for the coming state tournament at Janesville is only two weeks away, and the bowlers of the state who are taking their time to make up their minds had better take time by the forelock and either make reservation for the tournament, or send in their entry without delay.

There is sure to be a last rush of entries, and as usual there will be some who will be left at the post if they do not go through the motions of entering while there is plenty of time.

Milwaukee is setting pretty just now, as they only promised an entry of 200 teams, but the entries and reservations at this time show that the big city by the lake will have about 250 teams. About 25 or 30 more entered or reserved, and 25 or 30 more will surely

Hurrah For! Christmas

The grand old day has come again. As we look back upon the 365 days just gone, we see in them many, many good things. We are indeed glad of the opportunity to extend to you a cheerful wish, and a word of thankfulness for your patronage, and hope the coming year may be one of prosperity to you and yours.

Rogge Grocery Co.

A Bright Christmas Everywhere!

Our greetings we before you lay
Again this glorious Christmas Day;
You'll find no wishes more sincere,
No friends more true, nor thoughts more dear,
Than we hope for you another year.

Let every heart keep this Christmas within,
Christ's pity for sorrow, Christ's hatred for sin,
Christ's care for the weakest, Christ's courage for the right,
Christ's dread of the darkness,
Christ's love of the light,
And everywhere, everywhere
Christmas will be right.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS!

To all who read, we extend our very best wishes for the most wholesome and happy Christmas of your lives. May your most cherished hopes be fulfilled and the blessings of peace, joy and good health go with you hand in hand and be your boon companions until you reach this marker of time again in 1924.

We hope your cup overflows with the blessings of comfort, friendship and love and that your every effort be crowned with splendid success.

Good Wishes and a Merry Xmas

On this day, the day of days, Christmas Day, may you be happy, very happy. May you count your blessings one by one, and ask yourself the solemn question — What have I done that so many good things to me should come?

May we extend to you our sincere appreciation for the support accorded us during the past year and solicit your patronage during the year to come 1924.

DESERT RAILROAD
MADE TO ORDER
FOR LATE PRESIDENT

Line Was Completed In 87 Days
At Total Expense Of
$1,049,000

By Associated Press

Salt Lake City—A forty-mile railroad over the desert between Lund and Cedar City, rushed to completion in 87 days at a cost of $1,049,000, was one of the incidentals in the recent reception by the state of Utah to the late President Harding.

On April 2 last, the right of way men, using the Union Pacific railroad, secured possession of the needed ground for the construction of the railway from the Salt Lake route main line at Lund to the entrance of Zion National Park, and on the same day the first scrapful of earth was turned on the grade.

The contractor strung his men out in sections and as fast as a section was completed, the track-laying crew took possession and the ties and rails were set in place. Crowding upon their heels was the ballast crew. And so the work was rushed toward Cedar City.

In the midst of this orgy of toil came word that the President of the United States would visit Zion Park, providing the track was in shape for him. The contractor's men were in sections and as fast as a section was completed, the track-laying crew took possession and the ties and rails were set in place. Crowding upon their heels was the ballast crew. And so the work was rushed toward Cedar City.

EDUCATED TOES
EARN $400 A WEEK

That Is What Dancers Who Make Success Can Assure Themselves In Earnings

New York—Put your best foot forward. Regard your five toes. Now, wiggle 'em. That little action, six or madam, is worth exactly $8,550.00 to you.

At least so says the National Industrial Conference Board which places a value of $3,775 upon a foot and $3,194.96 upon a leg.

But if that foot and that leg were educated—well, some folks are making as much as $400 a week from their educated legs. The only thing lacking the ranks of the educators at present seems to be whether a foreign educated stepper is worth as much as the home trained variety.

"American legs are prettier," sings Monsieur Ivan Tarasof.

"But Russian ones command higher salaries," tosses back Monsieur Anatole Bourman.

Monsieur Tarasof was for 13 years premier danseur at the Imperial Theater at Moscow. Monsieur Bourman was educated at the Imperial Ballet in Petrograd, the same school which produced Anna Pavlova. Both, however, have deserted the haunts of the Bolshoi to found schools in New York where American girls may learn to pirouette and turn and point their toes properly.

It is not the first time that differences have arisen between educators. "Regard," entreats Monsieur Tarasof, "Miss Lina Basquette, whom artists declare to be the most beautiful they have ever seen. For her dancing she could easily have a salary of $500 a week."

"Hein!" retorts Monsieur Bourman. "Does not Anna Pavlova get $2000 a performance?"

"But this Miss Basquette," pleads Monsieur Tarasof, "beautiful as she is, there are others—beautiful American girls. I go down the street—perceive the little small ankles. I draw in my breath. 'Behold, I cry—'"

"At the Russian Imperial Ballet," hisses Monsieur Bourman, "there is Mlle. Lubova Cherkoff, the ugliest dancer in Russia with the most ungainly legs of any dancer extant. But she is the most talented and beloved of the ballet mistresses."

On one thing only are they agreed. It takes less time nowadays to turn out a first class dancer. Seven years was the time allotted in Petrograd. An American girl of average intelligence can turn the trick in two years. And the cost is slightly more than a university education. With class lessons at $40 a month and private lessons anywhere from $10 to $25 an hour, the whole process should be covered nicely for $10,000.

Educated legs! But they can command a salary of $400 a week, while graduates just out of college rarely make $25.

his big special train upon his arrival in the west. Every man on the system from the highest executive to the lowliest section hand plunged into the work with redoubled energy.

Whereupon there came the announcement that Harding's trip to southern Utah had been cancelled, and the work dragged.

But again came cheering news. Get into this time, that the president would come. Ignoring dust and desert heat, the men plunged into the job again, determined to finish the road in time.

Only forty-eight hours before the arrival of the president's train the depot site at Cedar City was strewn with foundations and debris left from the removal of houses that had been carried away or torn down. Ballast trains brought in clean white gravel. An approach twenty feet wide for automobile traffic was graded and surfaced and grounds were roped off.

Twelve hours before the president's train was due the electricians were erecting poles and stringing the lights along the railway track and the station yard.

The superintendent of the work rode into Cedar City on a pilot train ahead of the presidential train and he, the yard foreman, who was just finishing his second continuous 24-hour shift that week. He was covered with dirt and grime and a half-inch growth of rough beard bristled on his face. The superintendent prevailed upon him to get cleaned up and take a brief nap before the president arrived. The man dragged himself into a car within 500 feet of the spot where the president's special was "parked," and slept so soundly that he never even saw the highest executive.

During the construction of the new branch, ballast trains bringing gravel were given right of way over every other train line on the Salt Lake route main line. The biggest day's output was 119 cars. In the 57 days nearly one-half million tons of gravel were hauled an average distance of 100 miles.

Pinchot's Charges That Prohibition Has Failed Bear Weight Thru Survey

Washington—Results of a national survey just completed lend support to charges by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, that enforcement of the federal prohibition amendment has failed and that the country is in the grip of a "whisker rebellion."

In a number of cities, considered of strategic and typical importance, trained investigators made searching inquiry and found:

That prohibition, including beer, whiskey and gin, can still be had for a price.

That in many instances, liquor of pre-Volstead strength is being sold openly over saloon bars.

That authorities directly charged with the suppression of illicit liquor traffic are either doing very little, or else are powerless to stop the booze flood.

That deaths from moonshine concoctions are on the increase.

That liquor taxes still play their trade off the Atlantic coast.

That there is a growing psychological trend to consider it cleverness to flout the 18th amendment.

HOME-FOLKS BUY HOME-BOY'S MUSIC FOR PHONOGRAPH

Tillman's "Lonesome And Blue" One Of Most Popular Pieces In City

Edwin Tillman's song "Lonesome and Blue" is going big in Appleton, according to reports received from local phonograph dealers, and is one of the most popular pieces in stock. This is the song that Tillman composed on an Appleton street piano when he helped a young man for the Peter Trapp Grocery Co. Tillman now is head of the National Music Co. of Milwaukee.

One often wonders what becomes of a piece that is extremely popular for a time, and then, as is the habit with popular pieces, drops into oblivion. The manufacturer of course, stops his production of the record, or at least does not produce as extensively, but the retail dealer has his "dead stock" if it is not a wise buyer. In cases where a piece has been as popular as "Yes, We Have No Bananas," there are still a few calls for the record, but as a general thing an overstock is a loss. That is the gamble in popular music. It is hard to tell whether a new song will "take."

Pieces that were exceptionally popular last week were:

Victor—Christmas Carols, Lonesome and Blue, Just a Girl That Men Forget, I Ain't Gonna Rain No More, A Kiss In the Park (Gail C. No.)

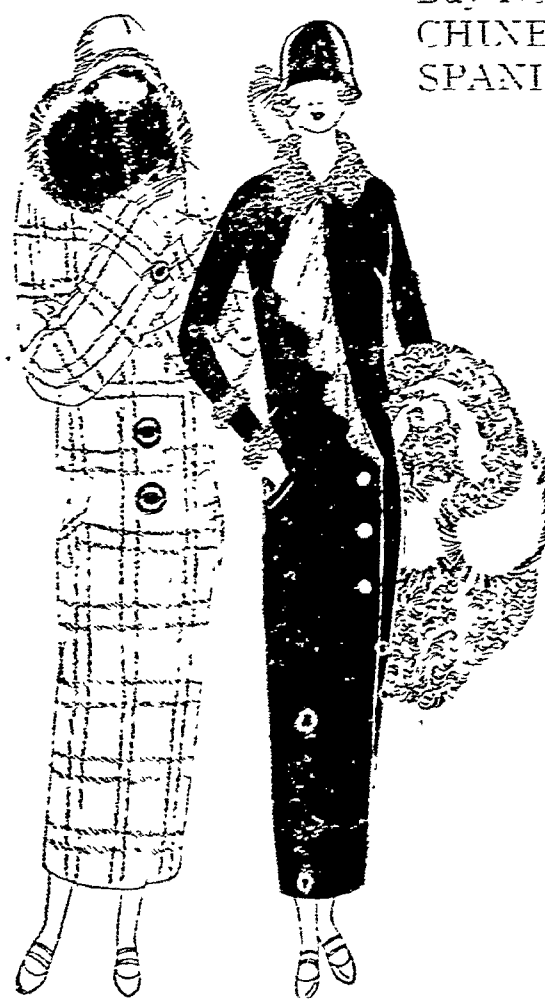

Edison—Indiana Moon, Just a Girl That Men Forget, Marching, Sir! In a Corner, Gypsy's Warning (Shepherd)

O'Keefe—Just a Girl That Men Forget, Last Night on the Back Porch, That's a Lot of Bunk, Marching, Good Night, Waltz

Brunswick—Somebody's Wrong, Swallow to Virginia, Dream Daddy, When Lights Are Low, Silent Night (Eastern)

Vocalion—Sleep, Easy Melody, Penelope on Te, Mama Goes Where Papa Goes, Elegie (Sundelius)

Victor—Lonesome and Blue, Every Night I Cry Myself to Sleep Over You, Sleep, The Way A Nest and You, Silent Night (Schumann-Heink)
